specting the result of the trial of the African prisoners, we shall endeavor to keep our readers Intest dates, the Grand Jury were in session, and they had the case of the African prisoners under consideration. Antonio, the Creole lad, who was servant to the Spanish captain, and who can speak no other language than'the Spanish, has been before the Grand Jury, and they have applied for the interpreter, and one of the most here them examined also.

hurglay last, a writ of habeas corpus was granted to the Petition of Mr. Sedgwick in the cases of the three African girls and the boy, and on Friday morning they were brought into court and placed at the bar. The court room was crowded; among the speciators was Governor Ellsworth. The children appeared to be in great affliction, and the girls wept exceeding ly. The jailor stood by the side of them, offering them fruit, &co to quiet them, but they put it aside, and 'refused to be comforted.' It was a spectacle that seemed deeply to affect Judge Thompson, the members of the bar, and the numerous spectators.

fained in the case of the African children, and that the children were native Africans; and a deposition to the same effect was made by another African, now in juil.

We are indebted to the Hartford Courant for the following report of the proceedings on Fri-

Mr. lagersoll, on behalf of the Spanish Claimauts, stated that the persons were libelled in the District as property they were also libelled by the Spanish Minister, as the slave property of Spanish subjects, and assuch ought to be delivered up and they were also libelled by the District Attorney, that they might be delivered up to the Executive, in order to their being sent to their native country, if it should be found they were entitled to be so sent. He presumed that under this writ of habeas corpus, the court would not take the case out of the legitimate jurisdiction of the District court, where it was now pen-.ding. as, if the decision of that court should not be satisfactory, the matter should be brought before this court by appeal. Mr. Baldwin of New Haven, for the African children, observed that they were held in custody , as property, as mere ... chattels, in a case . in. which they were not before the court, and they were awaiting the desision of apother question. The Grand Jury here came into court, and the foremen said they were anxious to have the direction of the Judge in the case of the African prisoners who were indicted for murder and piracy, which was under their consideration. Judge Thompson told them that this court had jurisdiction of the crime of murder, but he could give no opinion on the case unless they would tornish a statement of facts at would be useless for him to address them generally on the crimes of murder and piracy. The Grand Jury had a right to ask the opinion of the court, and it would then be the duty of the court to give

There being no other husiness before the Grand Jury, they and the petit Jury were accordingly discharged.

Counsel then resumed their arguments, and Mr. Baldwin prayed an order of the court to bring up Autonio, a colored young man, who was the slave of the captain of the Amistad, and ie gave the following evidence:

Antonio, (exammed through Lieut, Made.) vos the captain's slave, and was on board the Amisted when the female slaves came on board which they did quite freely, and were not bound, and about a quarter of an hour afterwards the spanish owners come on board. The slaves walked about the Ceck, or went below as they liked. There were Spanish and Yankee vessels in port, there was a Yankee man of war, there were many vessels there after slaves. He had been with his master ever since he was a little buy, and was always treated well by his master and mistress.

HARTFORD, Saturday, Sept. 21, 1839. On the sitting of the Court this morning Judge Thompson said he was not prepared to dispose of the question that occupied the attention of the Court yesterday, finally and, therefore, nothing that he now said should be con eidered as other than incidental remarks upon the arguments that had been offered to the The case was brought before it under very peculiar circumstances, and was one of very great difficulty undoubtedly the Court was much embarrassed as to how to dispuse of it Let it be distinctly understood, however, that the party brought up on the habess corpus stood perfectly discharged from the accusation of criminal offence. The mere question is, what is to be done with them? and the course The mere question is, which the Court pursues with respect to those brought up on the hibeast corpus, is perhaps that to be adopted as to all the other Africans now in confinement. But the simple question now under consideration was, whether the parties so brought up were rightfully in the possesmon of the District Court; and if they, were, this Court had no right to take them out of such possession. It might be full of injustice, and pregnant with very evil consequences, to dispose of these important questions in this sum mary way upon a writ of liab-as corpus However abhorrent to our feelings it might be to contemplate these human beings as property the Court were not at liberty to indulge in any sympathies with reference to that matter. They could only be governed by the law on the point,

It was contended by some that there could be no property in human flesh, yet it was impossi-ble to shut our eyes to the fact that elevery or the right to control the persons of others, was not only recognized by foreign" Courts, but by those of our own country, and men, human beings, under the name of slaves, had been returned to claimants, through the intervention of the constituted representatives of the States to which such claimants beloaged, as property; as in the case of the Antelope, reported in 10 Wheaton, p 66 for it was on that ground, and that alone, that they were so returned.

Dr Wm Evans Extract of a letter from Jonas Sander, Postmas ter Knoxville. Pa to Dr Wm Evant Among several cases 'an elderly lady who had been 25 yes afflicted with nervous hypochondria debility &c that for the last 3 years she constantly received me dical aid from a respectable physic and but they res sure and nam on her he it and breast and excectal ly in her left of te remained immovable, attended at long intervals with weakness in her head and on her mind keeping her discouraged to inderteke any thing In May she commenced using Dr W Fyans' Camorate and Family Aperient Pills according to the direction accompanying them. A reaction took place; the panis and pressure in her body was removed, her mind became clear and strong, her spirits perfectly good and up to this time is in all respects restored to health, which for the last 10 years sne has not enjoyed ' Sept 2 1836

JONAS SNYDER On Low Spirits Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined, Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen technically eatled hypochondria which are si vated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriasis

SYMPTOMS The common corporeal striptonis are flatulency in the stomach or howels acred eructailous, costiveness spasmodic pains, giddiness, dimness of sight palpitations, and often an uner inability of fixing the attent on upon any subject of importance, or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage. Also languidiess, the mind be coince trittable, thoughtful desponding melancholy and dejected, accompanied with a total derange-ment of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haut the imagulation and overwhelm the judgment extil man infinite diversity. The wiscal and best of then are as open to this affliction as the weakest
